Review:

- A meeting for field service will last from five to seven minutes.
- Before ending the meeting with a brief prayer, all should know how they will carry out the ministry and with whom.
- Good preparation also includes obtaining letter-writing and telephone materials in advance. (See the service overseer.)
- Generally, the meeting will be handled as a discussion.
- Please periodically review “Zoom Online Videoconferencing and Meetings” form.

MEETINGS FOR FIELD SERVICE REMINDERS

—1 Corinthians 14:40

1. When entering a meeting for field service, avoid giving a ‘shout-out’ to those in attendance.
2. To conserve time when called on to comment, avoid asking: ‘Can you hear me?’ When you unmute your microphone, simply give your comment. The conductor will let you know if he cannot hear you.
3. When the conductor is issuing territory to the group, avoid holding a conversation with others. Be Patient.
4. During witnessing periods, limit negative experiences; freely share upbuilding experiences.
5. Discuss the basic formats of writing an effective letter; don’t harp on the unimportant, technical aspects since doing so could become discouraging.
6. Continue upbuilding and commending one another.
